About

Hi, I'm Payton! My passion for weddings and content creation was born from a love of capturing life's unforgettable memories.

My background in Digital Marketing and has shaped how I connect with people, allowing me to stay ahead of trends while truly understanding what resonates with an audience. It's not just about following the latest trends — it's about finding authentic ways to tell a couple's love story, ensuring every visual and moment feels personal and true to them.

Through managing the S&B Instagram, I've found that my favorite part of weddings is capturing the raw emotion — those genuine, unfiltered moments that make each celebration unique. From first looks to spontaneous dance floor moments, I am always looking for ways to preserve the heart of the day. I believe the small, thoughtful details bring the bigger picture to life, and I love bringing that vision to reality.

I can't wait to continue helping couples celebrate their love stories with beauty and authenticity, creating memories that last a lifetime.

with love, Payton
